General Practice Policies and Financial Disclosures

I am committed to providing you with the highest quality psychiatric care possible in a cost-effective manner. All professional fees have been determined through careful consideration and attention to customary and reasonable practices within my geographical area.

The first one or two appointments (“Psychiatric Evaluation”) are focused on obtaining basic clinical history and defining treatment needs. Evaluation does not signify or imply that a physician-patient relationship exists. If either party (patient or physician) determines that it is not within their interest to continue meeting (after these first two meetings), I will do my best to provide referrals for a new provider so that care is not interrupted.

Payment is due in full at time of service. I accept personal check and cash. Checks may be made payable to “Eugene Simopoulos, M.D.” All balances are due prior to any further service provided.

I am always willing to discuss any outstanding balance on your account.

A cancelled appointment delays our work. When you must cancel, please give me at least 24 hours notice. I am rarely able to fill a cancelled session unless I know at least 24 hours in advance. If you are unable to provide at least 24 hours notice when you cancel, you will be charged the full fee for your session unless I am able to fill it with another patient. The only time I will waive this fee is in the event of serious or contagious illness or emergency.

If you are late to a scheduled appointment, you are still entitled to whatever time remains in the hour.

In case of a psychiatric emergency, please proceed to the nearest emergency room for evaluation. While I do my very best to ensure that I am available for patient care questions or concerns in a prompt manner, this may not always be feasible due to other clinical responsibilities.
